- Along with implementation, support and maintenance are included.
- Demonstrates ISC's continued growth and expansion in delivering registry solutions globally.

REGINA, Saskatchewan, Nov. 28, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Information Services Corporation (TSX:ISV) ("ISC" or the "Company") is pleased to announce a new contract win. Through its wholly owned subsidiary, Enterprise Registry Solutions Limited, the Company has signed an agreement with the Principality of Liechtenstein (the "Principality") to deliver a digital commercial registry system. The total value of the contract is CHF$6.2 million (approximately CA$10.0 million) and is for a period of 5 years.

The contract—which includes the deployment of an end-to-end digital solution for the Principality's eHandelsregister—will be powered by ISC's flexible and scalable RegSys platform. This system will enable government personnel to streamline workflows, provide efficient and accessible services to businesses, and individuals, and support the Principality's commitment to digital transformation. RegSys will provide a suite of integrated features that support filing submissions, registry searches, and document retrieval, all delivered through a secure and intuitive customer portal designed for accessibility across all devices.

"With over two decades of experience delivering innovative and secure registry solutions internationally, we are well-positioned to support the Principality's digital transformation as a trusted partner," says Shawn Peters, President and CEO of ISC. "This project reflects our dedication to providing tailored registry solutions that enhance efficiency, improve the user experience and deliver lasting value to our customers and clients around the world."

Utilizing the RegSys platform, ISC's Technology Solutions segment has successfully implemented and supported corporate registries across three continents, including implementations in Ireland, Guernsey, Jersey, Cyprus, the Dutch Caribbean, and at various levels of government in Canada, among others. For sales inquiries or to request a product demonstration of the RegSys platform, please email us at contact@isc.ca.
